Medicare Reminder: Medicaid eligibility for Medicare beneficiaries who need long-term care in the home or community All states have at least one Medicaid home and community-based service (HCBS) waiver program that provides general health coverage and coverage for certain services to help you stay at home or in a community-based setting (for example, in an assisted living facility). Remember that Medicare only covers home health care if you meet certain criteria, such as being homebound and needing skilled care. Even if you qualify for Medicare-covered home health care, you may need additional services. Medicaid can be used to supplement the amount and kind of services you get. If you do not meet Medicare's requirements for home care, you still may be eligible for a Medicaid HCBS waiver program.

You may qualify for help from a Medicaid HCBS waiver program if you:

- Meet your state's functional eligibility requirements for home and community-based services
- And, have income and assets below certain guidelines (remember, your state may have higher Medicaid income guidelines if you need long-term care, or a spend-down program to help you qualify)

States have different functional eligibility standards for determining whether you are eligible for home and community-based waiver programs. Most states require you need a nursing home level of care to qualify, but you may be able to need less care and still qualify for Medicaid coverage. States will also usually assess your need for help with activities of daily living (such as toileting, bathing, and dressing).

When you qualify for a Medicaid HCBS waiver program, Medicare still covers medical services you may need beyond your home health care. For example, if you need to go to a doctor or specialist's office, Medicare will pay first for most of these services, and Medicaid will pay second by covering your remaining costs, such as coinsurances, copayments, and deductibles.

Tax & Finance

IRS Wants You to Know About Schemes, Scams and Cons "If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is!" Don't become a victim to any scheme that offers instant wealth or exemption from your obligation as a United States citizen to file tax returns and/or pay taxes. Some of these schemes can literally cost you your life savings. Others can result in your prosecution and imprisonment if you knowingly participate in them. Abusive Return Preparer Taxpayers should be very careful when choosing a tax preparer. While most preparers provide excellent service to their clients, a few unscrupulous return preparers file false and fraudulent tax returns and ultimately defraud their clients. It is important to know that even if someone else prepares your return, you are ultimately responsible for all the information on the tax return. Abusive Tax Schemes Abusive tax scheme originally took the structure of fraudulent domestic and foreign trust arrangements. However, these schemes have evolved into sophisticated arrangements to give the appearance that taxpayers are not in control of their money. However, the taxpayers receive their funds through debit/credit cards or fictitious loans. These schemes often involve offshore banking and sometimes establish scam corporations or entities. Nonfiler Enforcement There have always been individuals who, for a variety of reasons, argue taxes are voluntary or illegal. The courts have repeatedly rejected their arguments as frivolous and routinely impose financial penalties for raising such frivolous arguments. Take the time to learn the truth about frivolous tax arguments. All Program and Emphasis Areas for Criminal Investigation Criminal Investigation has categorized their investigative cases into specific program and emphasis areas of fraud. Tax Scams — How to Report Them To help the public recognize and avoid abusive tax schemes, the IRS offers an abundance of educational materials. Participating in an illegal scheme to avoid paying taxes can result in imprisonment and fines, as well as the repayment of taxes owed with penalties and interest. Education is the best way to avoid the pitfalls of these “too good to be true” tax scams.

The sale or transfer of a firearm, rifle or shotgun at a Gun Show without first conducting a Background Check is a crime. It is also a crime to offer or agree to sell a firearm, rifle or shotgun at a Gun Show and then transfer it at another location for the purpose of avoiding a National Instant Criminal Background Check.

Sellers of all modern firearms must provide a gun locking device suitable for said firearm, with written instructions, at time of sale.
