“THOSE WERE THE DAYS”

Submitted by Village of Richfield Springs Historian Harriett Geywits

A quote by an unknown source says that ‘Every Summer has a story unknown.’ Following are some of the stories reported through the years in the MERCURY in the month of June that are known but perhaps forgotten:

1880: The people continue to come from all sections of the country and our hotels and boarding houses are rapidly filling up.

1888: Every visitor should visit the Mt. Otsego Observatory situated on the highest point of land in Central New York and from it can be seen seven lakes and four states. Open all times - picnic ground free.

1895: Season Tickets good for all races and allowing the purchaser the privilege of working horses on the track will be sold for the Richfield Springs Driving Park.

1900: The Electric Light Co. has just finished a substantial dam and waste weir (barrier) on Fish Creek at the electric light station, thus increasing the water storage so as to provide ample supply in the dry season.

1904: The first number of the Richfield Daily appear on a Saturday morning.

1905: The handsome and commodious band stand erected in Spring Park through the munificence of Mrs. J. H. Aldrich of New York, is about complete and is a structure that honors both the giver and the Village.

1906: E. Anderson, president of the Richfield Springs Floral Association, has sent packages of flower seeds to the eight branches in the adjoining towns to be distributed to each member for sowing. The plan is to beautify the surrounding country by the cultivation of flowers.

1907: Placards are posted on the busy corners by the Village Board stating: ‘Gentlemen and others must not stand on these corners.’

1908: A new horse drawn lawn mower purchased by Miss Whitehead for use on her golf grounds and costing $300 was demolished by the horse running away.

1911: Weekly dances at St. John’s Parish Hall are becoming very popular.

1915: Eighty-eight additional block boxes have been placed in the post office and all will soon be rented.

1916: Owing to the general increase in the cost of living, the physicians in this area have set up the following minimum fee schedule: Office Calls 75 cents; Village Calls $1.25; Country Calls $1.50 for first mile and each additional mile will be 25 cents; Confinement will be a minimum of $10.

1917: There are 169 men in the Town of Richfield between the age of 21 and 30 according to the Federal Military Census. Very few claimed exemption.

1918: Snowfall on June 27th.

1919: H. C. Brockway has had a gasoline pump with a glass container installed in front of his garage (now school garage) that shows how much gas a customer gets.

1920: The high cost of living hit the tonsorial parlors and the price of haircut has gone up to 45 cents. A shave may be still had for 15 cents.

1921: No trace has been found of the 500 hens stolen from the John Rickard farm.

1924: The 45th Annual Convention of the New York State Undertaker’s Association will be held at Bloomfield’s Hotel this month.

1925: Record of the autos, not counting trucks, that passed the clock Sunday between 12:30 and 7:50 was 2,912. The total was taken by Officer Griffith with his counting machine.

1930: Talking moving picture apparatus is being installed in the local theater by Ray Shaul and prices will go up to 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

1932: A tree that was started from a shoot of the Washington Elm in Cambridge, Massachusetts, was planted on the library lawn by the DAR.

1934: A severe hailstorm in the Pray Hill vicinity during the early evening with hailstones one or two inches in diameter, ruined crops, broke windows and smashed roofs.

1936: Notice is given of voting upon the question of the organization of a central school district to be established. If a majority of the voters vote in favor of centralization, a board of five central school trustees will be elected at the meeting.

1940: NOTICE: All pigs kept within the incorporate Village of Richfield Springs must be removed before June 1, 1940. H. V. Frink, MD - Health Officer.

1941: One hundred eighteen men and women are needed to man the air warning station in this section. (One observation post was on top of the Shurkatch)

1943: The fact that not one summer hotel on Main Street was opened should be chronicled. It is the only season in which that happened since Richfield Springs became prominent as a summer resort.

1945: The War Victory Garden campaign for Otsego County has a goal of 10,000 gardens and citizens are urged to participate by doing their part to raise and process food that is urgently needed by our troops.

LOOKING FOR AN AFFORDABLE USED CAR?

SICK OF BUYING rusty junk off of an individual or online and then spending more than you paid for it trying to get it functional or to pass inspection? At Central Auto Sales I take pride in buying quality cars that are still in excellent condition that can supply you with many miles of service in the future. I typically buy my cars from states south of NY to avoid the rust associated with local cars. I have a nice selection of cars in the affordable $4-6K range, most are low miles or low miles for the age. I'm a lifetime resident of Norwich. Buy from someone local. No pressure, no fancy hype, just quality cars at fair prices! Central Auto Sales LLC, 429 Manley Road, Norwich. www.centralautosalesllc.com 607-336-6371.

Sylva Christine Jenkins, 76, of Edmeston passed away on Sunday May 25, 2025 in Oneonta, NY.

Christine was born on August 11, 1948 in Oneonta, NY the daughter of the late Frederick F. and Sylva J. (Howland) Emhof.

She is survived by her daughter Virginia Catherine “Cookie” Jenkins of Greenville, NC, brother Fred (Linda) Emhof of Burlington Flats, sister Linda Arnold of Edmeston, nieces Kathy (Roger) Miller, Carol Arnold, and nephews Michael (Donna) Emhof, Tim Arnold, and Jeff Emhof.

A long-time resident of the area, Christine was employed with the Otsego County Department of Social Services for many years, retiring in 2011. In retirement, she spent her time painting abstract art, and crocheting. Other interests included Sci-Fi TV and movies, as well as astronomy, and was also an avid watcher of Perry Mason and Murder She wrote.

Christine was known to keep connections with everyone she knew (and some she didn’t) with greeting cards, not just for birthdays, but any occasion. She also loved cooking, trying new recipes, and adding her own special touches to feed anyone that visited.

Calling hours will be from 4:00PM to 7:00PM on Friday May 30th at Delker and Terry Funeral Home 30 South Street Edmeston. A graveside committal will be 10:00AM Saturday May 31st in the Edmeston Union Cemetery.

Donations may be made to the Susquehanna SPCA at www.sqsPCA.org/support or St Jude’s Children’s Hospital at www.stjude.org/donate.
